

Elly Johnson

Communications Specialist for Community Foundation of Henderson County

Communications Specialist Elly Johnson joined the professional team at the Community Foundation of Henderson County in October 2017.

Prior to serving as a Marketing Specialist for Denny's, Elly spent seven years as Director of Marketing for Eastern Aviation Fuels, Inc. With her years of experience in the marketing communications field, Elly brings a wealth of knowledge to the position as well as the Foundation.

Elly earned a BS in Communications from Western Carolina University with a concentration in Public Relations and was a member of Phi Mu Fraternity. She was an active member of First Presbyterian Church of New Bern, NC and former volunteer for the United Way of Coastal Carolina.

A native of Eastern North Carolina, Elly grew up in New Bern and attended high school at Saint Mary's School in Raleigh. Elly recently relocated to Hendersonville with her husband Tate Johnson who is employed with the United Way of Henderson County, their sons, Fitz (3) and Smithwick (3 months). In her spare time she enjoys reading and spending time outside with family and friends.

Founded in 1982, Community Foundation of Henderson County is a nonprofit, public charity
