

Community Foundation of Henderson County Awards $479,750 in Scholarships for the 2018-2019 Academic Year

Hendersonville, N.C., June 08, 2018: Community Foundation of Henderson County helped advance local students' educational dreams by awarding 226 scholarships totaling $479,750 for the 2018-2019 academic year.

The Community Foundation made 80 new scholarship awards totaling $138,400 and awarded 146 scholarship renewals totaling $348,350.

Since the inception of the Community Foundation's scholarship program in 1984, more than 1,300 students have received assistance. The Community Foundation has awarded more than $6 million to colleges and universities in the form of scholarship assistance to local students.

"It has been a privilege to co-chair the Foundation's Scholarship Committee this year and be a part of the entire process," says CFHC Board Member and Scholarship Committee Co-Chair, Kevin Parries. "The committee is comprised of 26 community leaders, dedicating their time to help promote the Foundation's scholarship program, screen & interview applicants, and make recommendations for awards. We start working in the fall when applications open and don't stop until our Scholarship Orientation on June 21st."

Community Foundation scholarships are open to students pursuing community college, college or university degrees. Scholarships are primarily for students graduating or who have graduated from public high schools, home schools and private schools in Henderson County, N.C. In addition, selective scholarships are also available for students in Transylvania, Jackson and Polk Counties. Criteria and award amounts for scholarships vary. Generally, the scholarships available are categorized by financial need, academic achievement, affiliation and field of study or place of study.

Available scholarships open in the fall each year. Guidelines and applications are available online at www.CFHCforever.org/scholarships.
