

Mauricio Rojas

Database/Program Associate for Community Foundation of Henderson County

Mauricio Rojas joined Community Foundation of Henderson County in 2018 as Database/Program Associate.

Mauricio joins the Foundation with experience in system design & analysis, database & network administration, software development and data mining and visualization.

A native of Henderson County, Mauricio graduated from North Henderson High School before being awarded the James Grey Scholarship through CFHC and attending University of North Carolina at Charlotte. There he earned a BSBA in Management Information Systems with a concentration in Systems and Analysis.

Mauricio is excited for the opportunity to be back Henderson County and is looking forward to giving back to a community that did so much for him.

Founded in 1982, Community Foundation of Henderson County is a nonprofit, public charity that helps people who care make lasting contributions to causes that matter.
