Donor Services Manager for Community Foundation of Henderson County

Wendy B. Hamil joined Community Foundation of Henderson County in 2016 as Donor Services Manager. Her admiration of nonprofits began with her first job at Walt Disney World working with Make-a-Wish Foundation.

Wendy has significant experience in public relations, fundraising, communications, marketing, and education.

A native of Gaffney, S.C., she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Clemson University and a Master's of Education degree from Faulkner University in Montgomery, Ala.

Wendy has 12 years of experience in education, and her background includes teaching in the public and private sectors as well as at the Tsinghua Experimental School in Shenzhen, China. She represented Tallassee City Schools to community civic groups and other organizations. During this time, she established the Tiger Culture Club and a fund to support student volunteerism and community awareness.

Some top organizations Wendy has worked with include Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, BMW Manufacturing, and PYA Monarch. She also owned an agriculturally-based company. Wendy also holds a South Carolina insurance license and has expertise in Social Security advisement. She also served as a national marketing director to promote technical education across America.

As a 2014 Vision Henderson County Alumni and its class president, Wendy led the effort to establish the John L. Boyd Vision Endowment Fund with the Community Foundation. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Friends of Carl Sandburg and is a micro-lender and volunteer for Kiva.org.

A resident of Saluda, N.C., Wendy enjoys outdoor events, the arts, equestrian events, serving as a member of the Saluda Business Association, and volunteering as the promotions manager for the Saluda Arts Festival.

Founded in 1982, Community Foundation of Henderson County is a nonprofit, public charity that helps people who care make lasting contributions to causes that matter.
